Sub:- Defence of India Rules - Requisitioning of lands and buildings - (South Kanara District) - Compensation - Second instalment - Payment - Entertainment of additional special staff - Proposals - Submitted.

The first year of requisitioning will be over by 31-1-1946 and the entire compensation for the lands and buildings requisitioned in this district will have to be paid to the owners early in February 1946. Except in those cases covered by arbitration proceedings, the entire non-recurring compensation and half the annual recurring compensation were paid in advance when parties executed the agreements.

2. The items which have to be drawn from the Treasury and paid to the parties in February 1946 are the second instalment of the annual recurring compensation andthe amount enhanced by the Arbitrator. The Special Arbitrator has not yet closed his work. It is expected that enhanced compensation will have to be paid to the parties in a pretty large number of cases according to the special Arbitrator's awards. Subject to enhancement by the Arbitrator, the recurring compensation payable in respect of the properties requisitioned in Kumbla area is Rs.71,973-4-0 and that in respect of Uppinangady area Rs.20557-6-5.

3. According to paragraph (3) of Government memorandum No.3085-B-42 dated 25-8-1942 read with Government Memo. No.3107-G-43-3 dated 9-10-43, payment has to be made to the parties on the spot by officers not below the rank of a Deputy Collector. It is only petty items not exceeding Rs.10/- that can be paid by office of the rank of a Deputy Tahsildar. Items exceeding Rs.10/- have to be paid in many cases and it has to be done with the utmost care and attention. The parties to whom the payment has to be made are residing in various villages outside the military blocks and their whereabouts are not readily traceable. The payment of compensation this time, will therefore involve considerable amoun of labour for which additional special staff will be necessary.

4. I think that the Revenue Divisional Officer, Puttur, under whose jurisdiction both the military blocks are, will be able to attend to the work of disbursing the amount with one Special Deputy Tahsildar with two peons, one accountant, (U.D.C. grade) and two Lower Division Clerks to assist him for a period of two months from 1-2-1946 in addition to the existing special staff working in this District. I request very early sanction for the entertainment of the additional special staff now proposed.
